

DJINN

Manchester DJ & Producer Djinn continues to rise as an undeniable force in drum & bass; remaining firmly true to the original, sub-heavy 170 sound, pushing a current-day heavyweight precision of deep rolling beats & dark, menacing amenism.

DJ'ing since 2004, Djinn has dropped her distinctive selection at countless events across the UK & played internationally for over 10 years ; touring North America, Australia, the Middle East & representing regularly in Europe, reaching countries such as Belgium, Germany, Netherlands, Czech Republic, Switzerland, Spain, Sweden, Poland, Ireland, Romania, Croatia, Turkey, Canada, USA & the UAE.

Having contributed tracks to a number of well-received multi-artist releases, 2017 saw Djinn make her true entry in production with debut 'Dark Reference' EP released on Foundation X overtaking some of the scene's most prolific producers to hold down both weekly and monthly number one best-selling vinyl spots online.

A versatile, meticulous DJ, Djinn's uncompromising style captures the true essence of authentic underground jungle & dnb; drawing deep on selection, blending devastating breakwork with dark dubbed-out, atmospheric cuts, & brooding cutting-edge grey-area beats.

Launched late 2015, Djinn's own imprint Formless has steadily carved its own niche in the North's drum & bass scene as a well-respected, reputable event for the deeper 170 heads; frequently attracting UK-wide attendees travelling to reach.

Djinn ends 2017 with 'Dark Reference' featuring amongst DJ Mag's multi-genre top 40 "Tracks of the Year", worldwide bookings, and numerous forthcoming projects due for future release.
