

Life is poetry.

You are invited to www.poetryzoo.com

PoetryZoo is the evolution of poetry. A new way to write, publish and share poetry online. To connect. Be read. It's about poetry anytime, anywhere. On tablet, laptop, desktop, smartphone – PoetryZoo simply adapts. At PoetryZoo, we believe life is poetry.

PoetryZoo is a vibrant adaptation using the latest digital tools. It's about inspiration, stimulation; mutual respect and support. Opportunity.

PoetryZoo is a creative online environment. Every member receives their own personal Workspace. An online study. A private, creative cocoon. Here you can write and hone your poetry – make multiple drafts, revise, polish. Or import existing poems. As many poems as you like. Everything is safely preserved.

When you're ready, publish your poems in your unique Poetry Window. Your showcase to the world. This is your place to be read. Add optional introduction and dedication – link sound and video. Build Collections; organise poems in any order. You can share single poems or whole collections. As many as you want. Create an optional 'Poet Profile' – reveal as much or as little as you wish. Pic or avatar. Or if you want to stay enigmatic, use a 'Zoodonym'!

Then connect. Share. Be read. Read. Engage. Connect with PoetryZoo members and the world. Build your readership with 'Readers and Reading' – it works pretty much like Twitter's Followers and Following. Contribute to communal Anthologies – or start one! Join or launch mutual interest Groups. Give and receive comments – and 'Loves!' - on poems - or not. It's always up to you. Discuss. Make friends. Contacts. Check out what's happening on PoetryZoo and poetry-related news and features in our 'Muse' space.

Connect your social media - Twitter, Facebook, Pinterest, Google+, MySpace, blogs, websites, etc. Tweet new work, cross-post... Email poems direct to friends, networks, family, contacts - or just your beloved!

The copyright of your poems remains with you: now and forever.

Every poet on PoetryZoo is unique; everyone is welcome and respected. Encouraged. Everyone – from professional poets and celebrities to total beginners, occasional or lifelong writers; the experienced, bold or shy; the nervous, determined, visionary and ambitious - has the same facilities and opportunities. Any background; any age. At PoetryZoo, we believe a poet can be anyone. Poetry is for the many, not the few. We think poetry is a natural part of life, a natural human response.

We invite you to PoetryZoo. Be inspired.
