

Family fun and adventure at Christmastime at PortAventura

- Once again, the holiday spirit prevails at PortAventura with decorations, lights, and gifts, making the resort the ideal destination for a family getaway.
- From November 21 through January 6, the park will feature shows and activities designed specifically to ensure visitors of all ages enjoy this magical time of year.

PortAventura, November 13, 2015.- The PortAventura Holiday Season begins November 21. Once again, PortAventura transforms into a dreamlike setting brimming with fir trees, lights, and garlands, making the park the best place to celebrate this special season with the family.

The vibrant decorations, countless activities and riveting shows infuse every corner of the resort with holiday magic. And PortAventura's Yuletide classics are back: the ice skating rink in Mexico, the Christmas menu at La Posada de los Gnomos (The Inn of the Gnomes), the Great Christmas Parade with the PortAventura characters, and the spectacular Arrival of the Royal Emissaries at Mediterrànea Lake. And among this season's new features are the Christmas Family Festival in SésamoAventura and the fun animated film "Ice Age: A Mammoth Christmas" in the Ice Age 4-D ride.

Shows, activities, and fun for the whole family

Each and every one of the park's areas will feature fun shows. In China, the Gran Teatro Imperial transforms into Santa's workshop in "Christmas among the Stars," a vibrant new musical full of breathtaking acrobatics, music, and dance. The show also includes a sensational acrobatic number by Szasz Kitti, five-time Freestyle Football world champion. The Far West will host the best shows on ice. Olympic champions from different countries will display their talents in the traditional performance of "Dreaming on Ice."

"Christmas Family Festival" is the latest installment at SésamoAventura. Beginning at 11am, the little ones can enjoy music, dancing, and surprises in an atmosphere of magic and fantasy. To celebrate Christmas from a unique perspective, visit Mexico's "La Gran Fiesta de Navidad" at La Cantina, an authentic Mexican restaurant decorated for the occasion with brightly colored piñatas and enlivened by traditional Mexican carols. Once again, on the afternoon of January 5, the Three Wise Men will visit PortAventura and stride the main avenue in a parade that has become a park tradition.
