PortAventura, 14th November 2016 – When it comes to spending Christmas as a family, PortAventura World has got it covered, offering a range of fun-filled activities and events – there's something for everyone. Christmas at Port Aventura begins on 19th November and visitors will be able to enjoy winter wonders all over the park from start to finish.

The park will be turned into an unforgettable wonderland filled with fir trees, Christmas ornaments, twinkly lights, wreaths and snowflakes, making Port Aventura World the ultimate destination to spend Christmas together as a family.

Get into the Christmas spirit by enjoying a range of festive shows and performances. Not to be missed, "Dreaming on Ice" is a magnificent artistic and acrobatic story told by international ice-skating champions and "Winter Magic Bubblebou" consists of a ginormous bubble show, enjoyable for both children and adults alike.

You can also experience the "Christmas Family Festival", with non-stop music and dancing it's perfect for the little ones. Bert, Ernie and friends won't miss their chance to celebrate Christmas at Port Aventura World either: join them for a sing along at "Ya es Navidad en SésamoAventura", a show jam-packed with Christmas spirit.

Top your festive family fun off and watch the musical parade "La Parada de Navidad" on Main Street featuring all your favourite characters.

To celebrate the season, the Gran Teatro Imperial in China world will become Santa Claus' magical house, where his helpers will be making presents, performing acrobatics and singing Christmas songs. Plus, the little ones will be able to give the royal emissaries their letters for the Three Kings.

A festive range of gastronomy inspired by Christmas

It's not only the park that's undergoing a Christmas make over, the restaurants will too, allowing you to taste festive traditional dishes from all over the world. At La Cantina visitors can enjoy the most popular Mexican Christmas songs whilst they enjoy Mexican cuisine and in the Far West Emma's House restaurant will become "La Posada de los Gnomos" where you can enjoy dinner and a Christmas story.
