- Varekai tells the story of the Greek myth of Icarus, reinterpreted by the creators of Cirque du Soleil, which has already captivated millions of people around the world.

PortAventura, 4th July 2017. - On 6th July, the iconic big top of the Canadian circus company will open its doors and stay on site at PortAventura World over July and August. During this time there will be twice-daily performances at 18:00 and 21:30, making PortAventura World the only European resort to offer visitors the opportunity to experience a Cirque du Soleil show.

Varekai tells the story of a solitary young man who falls from the sky and lands in the shadows of a magic forest – a kaleidoscopic world full of exotic creatures where he embarks on an extraordinary adventure. Varekai, which means “wherever”, pays homage to the nomadic spirit, to the soul, and to the art of the circus tradition as well as to the infinite passion of those who seek the path that leads to this special place.

In Varekai, the impossible becomes possible thanks to impressive demonstrations of skill accompanied by innovative music and lively choreography in supernatural settings. An international cast consisting of over 50 artists and musicians is the soul of the show.

This successful collaboration between the two companies began with Kooza in 2014 and continued with Amaluna in 2015. An agreement was signed establishing that Cirque du Soleil would continue to set up their summer base at PortAventura World until 2020. By welcoming the iconic tent onto its premises, PortAventura reaffirms its strategy of creating, year after year, new international benchmarks that position the resort as the best holiday and family leisure destination.

With this show, PortAventura expects to receive more than 110,000 spectators. Tickets can be purchased from the PortAventura World website.

About Cirque du Soleil

It all started 30 years ago with a dream. It was the dream of a small community of travelling performers who would do anything to share their love of the stage, of circus, and of the world. The family has grown since then and now includes thousands of dreamers – creators, artists, technicians and workers who play their part hidden away in the wings. The dream has become a Quebec symbol of pride; an international entertainment company that has brought 35 large-scale shows to life, 20 of which are still being performed all over the world. The company, which celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2014, has captivated around 150 million spectators in 300 cities on six continents. The team currently stands at 4000 people, including 1300 artists from 50 different countries.
