A GOOD EXAMPLE

© LEONARDO PÉREZ

IRELAND

The line that separates a good example from bad example is so thin that we can cross it in any time.

MASKI / MASKS
© WOJCIECH WALKIEWICZ

POLAND

The subject of the film are the preparations for the performance "Masks". It's the joint work of two artists: Piotr Łucian from Poland and Andriy Yurkevych from Ukraine. This performance was held on 19 November 2015 in Drohobycz, Ukraine, to commemorate Black Thursday in 1942 when, during the liquidation of the ghetto the Nazis killed 230 Jews. Bruno Szulc, a Polish-Jewish writer, was among the murdered.

PANIC ATTACK
© EILEEN O'MEARA

USA

"Panic Attack!" is a hand-drawn animation from the point of view of a woman having a panic attack. I wanted the transitions between reality and her imagined fears to be seamless, so there are no edits - it is one continually transforming drawing.
