April 2017

Staffing update

Fliss James, our Deputy Headteacher will be leaving us this Friday 28th April. Fliss has been working at Comet for 2 years and has made an invaluable contribution to the children both in her teaching and development of the curriculum and training. Fliss is taking some time out to resume her studies with young children's learning.

Julie Bryan will be joining us for the summer term and will be working closely with Jessica as the teachers in Star Class. We will be recruiting for a new Deputy Headteacher this term.

Shanel Kamara will also be working in Star Class for the summer term as a Nursery Education Officer, she will be the key person for a group of children.

Children's Centre News

For information about the children's centre services please pick up a summer programme from the office.

£5 notes

As the old £5 note is being phased out we will not be taking any old £5 notes from Friday 5th May.

General Election

Please note that Comet is a polling station and will be closed on Thursday 8th June for the General Election.
