

Dear parents: .... Half way through the Summer term now. Time will now fly until the last day on July 19th. This is traditionally the happiest time of the year full of sunshine, strawberries and lots of outdoor activities. Do enjoy this precious time. Been an amazing week seeing all the 90 year old D-Day veterans for surely their last trip to Normandy. Tough resilient generation with not a smart phone or social media profile among them in 1944. Busy days and hope to see lots of you over the Summer months.
