

Dear parents: Happy New Year 2019. Hope everyone enjoyed a nice rest and your new year resolutions are all still going strong. Whether you are on the 16:8 diet, the make a To Do list month, Veganuary, Dry January, join a gym or whatever all the very best for getting through this rather grim month.

Lots went on in school over Christmas and New Year and you may have seen the lovely new glass and wood doors in all the Junior classrooms. Allows much greater light in and modernises the whole environment. See below for the weeks ahead and today you will get a Spring timetable together with this newsletter. Everything also goes on our website right away. Hope this interesting year ahead goes well for everyone and a prosperous, healthy and peaceful 2019.

Reception Admissions.... 2019

If you are thinking of applying for a Reception class place here @ OLSJ please ensure you have completed an up to date SIF (supplementary information form), CCP (certificate of Catholic practice) and provided proof of address. FINAL Closing date is 15/01/2019

pics of the week.... New doors in the Junior block and some new arrivals for 2019 and finally .. so 2019 ahead and lots of things to look forward to in school. My challenging New Year Resolution is to improve my spoken German. Can read it quite well but love learning new languages. + walk more and become even more pescatarian and eat less meat. ...An interesting week ahead ... I never write about the B word any more too toxic..... but thought an Uncivil War Channel 4 Monday this week was really well done as was Manhunt on ITV. Two great performances from Benedict Cumberbatch and Martin Clunes both available on catch up. ...early morning wake up tomorrow as West Ham take on Arsenal at 12.30 and sad to hear Andy Murray on the radio this morning as the Joni Mitchell song once said: "You don't know what you've got till it's gone" ... curriculum newsletters on Monday with ideas on how to help your child learn especially tables this year ... life can be fugacious ... ?? ...only word I got wrong in a recent IQ test ...got everything else correct 150+ heard of it before ?? ... enjoy the January weekend.
