

Dear parents: despite her busy Brexit schedule and Mr Corbyn's opposition role both leaders took time out to write really fine letters to our current Year 5 pupils thanking them for the letters they had written about plastic waste and the seas. Proper signed letters and not electronic signatures so well done the PM and JC and to Year 5 and Ms Cahill (letters were written last academic year). On display now in our main entrance. On the subject of plastic we have been looking for some time for non-plastic or polyethylene book bags at the right price and material. Not as easy as you might think. We have finally found a good product and we hope to start selling them to Key Stage 1 pupils after half-term ready for Christmas. Book Fayre was so popular we are holding another one in December so well done Ms Ruminska.

School news this week

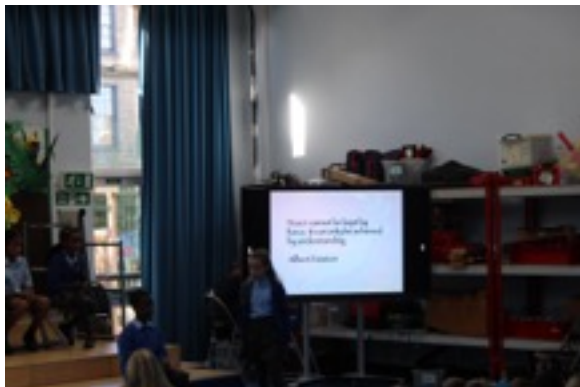

Monday more roles for Year 6 assembly, deputy badges given out and the Billy Goat story.

Wednesday ... Year 5 assembly on International Peace Day well done Ms Harries and Year 5. Hope you all enjoyed it.

Pics of the week

Peace cannot be kept by force. It can only be achieved by understanding.

and finally .. anyway wonderful ending to the Bodyguard last week so as we go into October what else is to look forward to .. my own current favourite is The Great British Menu especially the judging part ... "your food looked wonderful, great idea ... however / but/ and then say it tasted like dog food, too much salt/pepper/sugar/ cream, too bland / too spicy" cue pic of crumbling chef BBC2 7.30pm Ryder Cup weekend so can write without being Trolledso come on Europe !!! Hope it is exciting. October on Monday !
