Class News

Class Lynher - This week, we have had our 'fill a jar' draw which was good fun. Mani's Grandad came in to talk to us about Iran. He gave us some pistachio nuts to try! We made Persian rugs out of card and wool and wrote questions on the back for him to answer. He also brought in a real Persian rug for us to see. Yesterday afternoon, we spent some time using the PE equipment in the hall. By Brae

Class Tamar - We enjoyed 'play in a day' today. In PE, we have been doing gymnastics - learning new jumps and sequences. By Essie & Oliver

Year 2 - We have been singing all the songs we have learnt so far. We have also made story maps and then wrote our own pirate stories. We have learnt where Cornwall is on a map and pinned different places in Cornwall such as our school. We did gymnastics in PE. By Cooper & Josie

Year 1 - We have been learning where we live and added our homes to a map of Cornwall. We have also been learning how to write a recount. By Billy & Phoebe

Foundation - We have been learning to put sounds together to make words. We have been ordering numbers and making zigzag books. We have used our imaginations to make up stories. By Molly & Oscar
