

Suzanne Bryant

I have two children at the school, so have a connection and an interest in helping it to be the best it can. I am currently Chair of the Teaching and Learning Committee and I am co-Vice-Chair of the board.

I have been a teacher for the last 12 years and, within that time, have worked in a variety of different schools and colleges.

I currently work at South Devon College, where I teach on Access to HE courses, as well as some A Level and GCSE Psychology.
