

I have been a parent governor with Dobwalls since sept 2019 and have 2 children attending the school. My background is working with children and families within social care, and as such can offer skills and learning around the importance of building emotional resilience in child development and education. I have lived in Liskeard for almost 10 years and am committed to working with the school and local community to build secure and supportive futures for children living there.