

QUESTION

Questions are sentences which ask something.

They always end with a question mark.

How are you today?

When is the bus coming?

What is your name?

Where is your homework?

STATEMENT

Statements are sentences which tell you something.
They must contain a noun and a verb and generally end with a full stop.

The cat climbed the tree.

I went to the shops.

The dinosaur ate the leaf.

Birds fly high.

COMMAND

Commands are sentences which tell you to do something.
They start with an imperative verb.

Brush your teeth.

Stop jumping on your bed!

Help me!

Stop!

EXCLAMATION

An exclamation is used when someone is surprised, shouting or excited.

They include a noun and a verb and start with 'how' or 'what'. They always end with an exclamation mark.

What big teeth you have!

How funny you are!

What a fantastic story that is!

