

Dear Anty-Googly,

In three days it will be my birthday.

I want you to come in three days.

The party will be held on Dazzling Dooly Bucaroo (my ship if you don't know) Oh, there will be party games like pin the fly on the pirate's nose, pirate statues, who can cut the loudest and find the treasure map. We will have lots of food like trash cake, seaweed sandwiches, bogie smoothy. You also have to bring me a present or you will walk the plank, sharks are in the water. So don't forget it! We will wear party hats to go with your most rotalist pirate suit in your dusty, old, wooden closet!

from your dusty shipmate
Beaste
