Unit 1- A Bleating Sheep

I want to draw a sheep that will bleat the day away.

I drew an oval that was the sheep's face. Then, two circles so my sheep can see. One nose will be made by making a 'Y'.

Then, I will draw a line to look like a smile.

By adding two long ovals, each on one side of my sheep's head, my sheep can now hear with its ears.

Next, a body will be added, simply draw a BIG circle all the way around the sheep's head. Then, two small circles will complete my sheep's feet.

My sheep is complete and ready to bleat.

Unit 2- The Golden Robot

A golden robot sat on a stone next to a frozen pond. Snow was blowing across the pond. It was cold but the robot's nose was glowing red-hot and smoke rose from it.

A thin, bony man got on the pond. He had old clothes and no socks on his toes.

'I am so cold' he said. 'But I can see a hot glow from the nose of that robot. I only hope I can get up to it.'

Unit 3- The Grey Face

There was a man with a face that was a square shape. A triangle nose was placed in the middle of it. He had straight blue hair that stuck out all over the place.

He had tears under his eyes because he was in pain. His ears were swirly like a snail's shell. He wore a hat that had a birthday cake drawn on it.

His mouth was wide and his teeth were made out of metal so they were plain and grey.

Unit 4- On the Sand

It was sunset. Alan ran fast on the golden sand. His black dog ran next to him. Alan held a red belt in his hand and his dog held the end of it. His mum and dad sat in the setting sun on the bank and had a rest. A sad man got up on the big box. He had lost a gold stick. It was wet and bent in a pond.

Unit 5- A toy for a boy

Roy who was a skinny and tall boy was enjoying his new toy. He was enjoying a round red ball. He had another toy. It was a teddy but it had been spoiled by some brown soil which fell on its head. Next to the teddy was a plate which was made from some shiny metal foil. The teddy had an annoyed face because he was dirty.
