ancient fascinating

Now write the words next to their meanings:

	This word is an adjective that describes something that is very valuable or dearly loved.
	This adjective describes things that are very old.
	This adjective tells you that something is really interesting.
	To look into carefully and closely. This word is a verb .

Thursday

Today we are thinking about ancient things. Write the words ancient or modern next to each picture below.

Did you find four ancient things?

Friday

The following sentences use the word investigate. However, there is a mistake in each one. Put a circle round each mistake.

the policeman went to investigate the crime.

The policeman went to invistigate the crime.

The policeman went to investigate the crime

Now write the sentence out with no mistakes!
