Super Saturdays - National speakers in a local venue

Hear about and discuss the latest developments in teaching and leadership from nationally recognised practitioners and speakers

Katharine Birbalsingh

Saturday 7th March 2020, 9am - 1pm, Penrice Academy

(lunch & refreshments provided)

Join us at Penrice Academy on Saturday 7th March to hear Katharine Birbalsingh speak about her views on the curriculum and behaviour.

A question and answer session will follow Katharine's presentation after which delegates have a further opportunity to speak with Katharine over lunch.

Katharine Birbalsingh is Headmistress and co-founder of Michaela Community School in Wembley, London. Michaela is known for its tough-love behaviour systems, knowledge curriculum and teaching of kindness and gratitude. In 2017, OFSTED graded the school as "Outstanding" in every category. In 2019, GCSE results showed 54% of graded papers getting a grade 7 or above with 90% 4to9 in Maths and 90% 4to9 in English.

Katharine read Philosophy & Modern Languages at The University of Oxford and has always taught in inner London. She has made numerous appearances on television and radio and has written for several UK publications. Katharine has written two books and edited a third which is entitled Battle Hymn of the Tiger Teachers: the Michaela way. A second Michaela book will be out in the new year. Whether you agree with Katharine or not, she will make you think.
