

Calling all SENCOs!

Virtual SENCO Network Meetings Summer Term 2020

Wednesday 3rd June

Two sessions available: 9.30am - 11.00am and 1.30pm – 3.00pm
(the second session will contain the same content as the first)

The focus will be on supporting transition. The virtual sessions will be hosted via Microsoft Teams. Please book via Cornwall Learning Online (details below) and ensure that your email address is correct when booking – your work email address is preferable. An invite to your chosen session will be sent to your email address before the meeting takes place.

- There will be short inputs from each of the SEN Services to provide guidance on transition for children and young people with additional needs
- Nick Millward will provide a short input around social, emotional and mental health
- There is an opportunity to submit questions in advance, the closing date for questions and booking your place is Wednesday 29th May 2020. We cannot guarantee that your question will be answered although we will endeavour to follow up unanswered questions after the event
- Email your questions to senbusinesssupport@cornwall.gov.uk, putting 'SENCO Network meeting question' in the subject line of your email and stating which session you are attending

Booking will be open from 04.05.2020. For more details and to book online please visit www.cornwalllearningonline.co.uk and search for course code: SEN02

Please ensure you book onto the session that suits you – there are two to choose from
