DfE 2018-2019 SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT OFFER

Further information is emerging regarding the 2018-2019 School Improvement Offer. The DfE external lines are as follows:

- On 4 May, the Secretary of State spoke at the National Association of Headteachers (NAHT) Conference, and announced a set of principles for a clear and simple accountability system
- The principles will provide clarity for schools on how the accountability system for educational performance will operate, the consequences that can flow from it and the roles of the actors within it
- The DfE are reviewing how best to make an offer of school improvement support within a clear and simple accountability system, that is easier to understand, and more accessible for schools
- We are planning a consultation on how we identify schools eligible for support and further details will be available in due course
- For academic year 2018/19, the existing floor and coasting standards will remain in place. Where a school is below the floor or coasting standards, but is not judged inadequate, the RSC will not use the Secretary of State's powers to issue an academy order or a warning notice. Instead, the floor and coasting standards will be calculated in 2018/19 solely for DfE to identify schools which might benefit from support
- Further details on the offer of support will be set out on our GOV.UK pages shortly
- For academic year 2018/19, we have improved our school improvement support pages on GOV.UK. There is a new section dedicated to school improvement support which schools can access, and the providers delivering it. Information is grouped into categories such as curriculum and leadership, and structured in a way that helps schools to easily identify support that is available to meet a particular school improvement need, and if they are eligible to receive it.

NLE APPLICATION ROUND OPENING and PANEL ATTENDANCE REQUIRED

As outlined briefly at TSC this week, the DfE are planning on opening a small, very targeted NLE (T26) designation round in October. The DfE are making a few changes in this round insofar that they are introducing:

1. An email enquiry stage – the application form will only be sent to schools who meet the basic criteria (target area, Ofsted, headship and performance)
2. MATs – this round is being opened up to MAT CEOs
3. Appeals – there will not be an appeal process/ panel.

A short document is attached with more details. If you have any questions please raise these directly with Simon Rich simon.rich@education.gov.uk or Sophie Marriott Sophie.marriott@education.gov.uk

The designation team currently expect the final panel for this round to take place on either Wednesday 5 or Monday 10 Dec in London or Manchester, depending on your preference/ availability – and the actual start date for the application round. If you're available please email charlotte.atkins@education.gov.uk and advise which dates and locations you might be available to sit on the designation panel.

ACTION: Identify any potential NLEs
