A BIG thank you to the Ladybirds and Silver Link Knitting Groups who have knitted Dycorts over 40 Sensory Sleeves! The sleeves are knitted bands (a bit like a hand muff) which are adorned with trimmings such as beads, buttons, ribbons and teddy bears. They are used to help pupils focus.

In Silver class this week we have been learning about Remembrance Day. We watched a PowerPoint on the famous war poet Major John McCrae. We read his poem and closed our eyes, and tried to imagine what might have happened by listening to the words and visualising the poppy field in our minds. We wrote and drew pictures of what Remembrance Day means to us.
