

PTFA NEWS

Sampfordpeverell.ptfa@yahoo.co.uk

We are so pleased to announce that you spent a total of £737 on book at our book fair last week giving the school an outstanding £185 to spend on books for the school!! Thank you so much and I hope you got some great presents for Christmas.

We loved the book fair so much that we have booked them in again for World Book week in March. Start saving!!

We raised £200 this year from the non uniform day and cake sales.

£60 has been sent to Link to Hope for their Shoebox appeal and £140 will be sent to the Exeter charity Balloons.

These are 2 small charities that we know will use the money to benefit children directly. Thank you again for your generosity and support.

Here is the website link for Balloons. If you know a family who might benefit from their services please pass it on. <http://balloonscharity.co.uk/>

Thank you to everyone who came to our Bingo event on Friday night. It was a great turn out and many people walked away with prizes. Thank you to Michelle Gascoigne for organising the event and to Mr Curnow for being our fabulous bingo caller.

Christmas is coming!!
Donations of decorations (tinsel, baubles etc)
very welcome!

The PTFA are currently organising Christmas trees for school.

Look out for Mrs Bundy's 'Christmas Decoration House Competition' that she will announce later this week.

The children will all be making decorations and bunting to make the school feel festive.

If anyone has any unwanted decorations that the school can use, please send them in.

FRIDAY 1st DECEMBER
BREAK THE RULES FUNDRAISER

THIS Friday the PTFA are hosting a 'Break the Rules' day fundraiser. The children come to school in school uniform but they are allowed to 'break rules' for one day only!!

For every rule they donate a chocolate bar/bag of chocolate
(which we will use in our chocolate Tombola at the fair)

These are the rules they can break on Friday

- Wearing your own socks
- Juice in your water bottle
- Hair down, not tied back
- Accessorise your hair (glitter, colour)
- Wearing nail varnish
- Wearing trainers/own shoes
- Crisps at break time
- Wearing a baseball cap in class

So if you buy a Xmas selection box (only £1 in most supermarkets) then they can break at least 5 rules!!!

The school council will be on the gate to collect all donations.

Thank you from the PTFA

The office is collecting in volunteer slips and order forms for the 'Secret Gift Room' (don't miss out!)

10 stalls have been confirmed to sell gifts/craft and we have a license now to sell mulled wine!
Less than 2 weeks to go!!
