Children will agree that with every Right comes a Responsibility:

- The right to be treated fairly...To take turns, to listen to others and not to interrupt, to treat others as you yourself would like to be treated, to apologise if you are wrong
- The right to respect you and your things...To be listened to, to be polite, to take care of resources, to respect other people's property
- The right to learn...Not to shout out in class or disrupt other people's learning by your behaviour, to ask a teacher for help if you are unsure, to be sensible around the classroom and school
- The right to enjoy coming to school and enjoy learning... to keep yourself safe and not take risks that could put you or your friends at risk, not to hurt others either physically or emotionally
- The right for everyone to be included...To join in school activities, events and routines positively, to make sure no one is left out, to work as a team for the good of your school
