

Governing Body of St John's Primary School

Register of Interests 2016-2017

Under section 538 of the Education Act 1996, maintained school GBs are required to provide information about their members for the DfE's national database on those involved in governance, and to keep the Edubase system up to date when changes occur.

Governing bodies also have a statutory duty to publish on their website information about their members, including the Register of Interests.
