PLEASE CAN I ENCOURGAE YOU TO COMPLETE THE QUESTIONNAIRE BELOW

What do you think about what we teach your children and our curriculum?

You may be aware that the New Ofsted Framework (active from Sept 2019) asks schools to ensure that they offer a curriculum that reflects the needs of their children and community and prepares children for the future. We are therefore reviewing the curriculum we offer at Chaddlewood and are asking ALL stakeholders for their input so we can ensure our curriculum is as successful and appropriate as possible. To this end we would really appreciate you completing the online questionnaire we have set up to gather your opinions as parents. We are also asking your children, the governors and all school staff.

The link to the questionnaire is: <https://forms.gle/BTpZ7PqYxNSsXYR58>

If you paste this into your internet browser it will take you to the Google questionnaire. I would really appreciate your input on this ☺

Piano and kiln for sale!

We have a piano and small kiln for sale. If you are interested and would like to discuss costs and have a look at them, please let the office know. They are going cheap to a good home:-)

Parking

It wouldn't be a newsletter if I didn't mention parking! Again people are parking on the zig-zag lines outside the school. I have taken photographs of the 3 cars that did this yesterday and will be sharing them with the police. There are two signs showing that this is not permitted so 'not knowing' is not an excuse I'm afraid. PLEASE help us keep our children safe!

You are invited to a Young People's Day at Ford Park Cemetery, Plymouth, PL4 6NT , on Sunday the 4th August from 12.30 pm - 4.0 pm

Activities will include:

Circus Skills - four half hour sessions. Orienteering, and more, with the Army Cadets.

Three self-guided trails, plus a puzzle trail with a small prize for those getting the correct answer. Pebble painting.

Headstone rubbings, similar to brass rubbings, of the emblems on some of the Commonwealth War Graves.

In the Visitor Centre there will be an exhibition with posters about various youth organisations.

There will be small pasties, small cakes and drinks available to purchase, other than that there will be no charge for any of the activities and no entrance fee.

All under 12s must be accompanied by a parent, carer or leader.
