HAPPY HALF TERM

We wish you all a happy and relaxing half term and look forward to seeing you all back in school on Monday 19th February.

Also, half term is always a good opportunity to check and if necessary treat your child's hair for head lice. So, please take the time to check.

Attendance Policy

The new attendance policy in line with Dorset County Council will be implemented from 19th February. Please remember that this means that term time holidays will not only continue to be unauthorised, but there will now be a fine imposed.

PTFA Meeting

The next PTFA meeting takes place on Wednesday 21st February at 9 am in school.

Nut Free Zone

Please do not include any nuts or foods containing nuts in your child's lunchbox, as we now have some children with nut allergies. Please take the time to check food labels as foods such as Nutella and Kinder Bueno bars do contain nuts.

Thank you

Mrs Royan

We wish Mrs Royan luck as she moves to her new job, and we thank everyone for the donations of £113.44 raised at the charity event at the Ship Inn last week. The PTFA will be using the money raised to buy some new resources for 'Early Birds and Late Owls'

WORLD BOOK DAY

Thursday 1st March

This year on World Book Day we invite everyone to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. All classes will be taking part in a range of book activities.

More details to follow after half term.
