Remembrance Day information

This Saturday at 11am there will be a special Remembrance Messy Church at All Hallows' Church, Henshaw. During the session we will be working on the wreath for the War Memorial.

On Sunday at 10am at All Hallows' there will be Service of Remembrance, followed by an Act of Remembrance at the Bardon Mill War Memorial. During the service in Church there will be crafts for children which will then become part of the Act of Remembrance.

We hope you can come along.

A Roman visitor!

The children in Key Stage 2 completed their Roman topic with a visit from a real Roman soldier! The children asked fantastic questions and listened carefully to the information given during the session. They have thoroughly enjoyed this topic and have been involved in many fantastic experiences based around the Romans and the Celts.

Children in Need – Spotacular! - 15.11.18

Just a reminder that our children are welcome to come to school in something 'spotty', for a suggested donation of £1, next Friday.

There will also be biscuits on sale for 50p and any loose change to cover up our Big Pudsey Bear would also be welcome! Thank you
