Harvest Festival

What a super Harvest Festival yesterday. It was so lovely to see so many friendly faces enjoying our soup lunch and Harvest Festival. Many thanks to Louise and the Friends for organising the event. Thank you to Tesco for providing us with free vegetables for the soup. Thank you to the children for helping to prepare the vegetables.

A massive thank you to all parents and children who generously donated items of food in fabulously decorated boxes. Well done to everyone who entered the decorated fruit and vegetable competition.

The winners of the fruit and vegetable competition were:

Reception –Alfie (Mr Bump)

Year 1-Freddie (Spiderman)

Year 2-Genevieve (Sponge Bob Square Pants)

Year 3-Jackson (Watermelon Pirate Galleon)

Year 4-Lloyd (Aubergine penguin)

Well done to Abbie, Chloe, Thea, Genevieve, Cayden and Katlyn for winning a prize for their Harvest box. All children were given a biscuit as a treat for their efforts.

The Harvest boxes will be delivered around the village on Monday (weather permitting).

Once a week-take a peek!

We have had a reported case of head lice this week. Please check your child's hair regularly for 'visitors'. Long hair should be tied back to help prevent the spread of lice and also to ensure it is out the way during lessons and PE.

PRE-SCHOOL REQUEST

Pre-School are in need of some more Duplo bricks and before they make a purchase wondered if anyone would like to donate Duplo items that are unused at home.
