School News

The school gymnastics team competed for the first time in the School Games qualifying competition and achieved third overall.

This is a fantastic achievement, with the children facing some stiff competition.

55 Sleeps Reading Challenge.

There was a terrific response to this challenge and we have drawn a winner from each class as follows; Connor H. Tyler H. Seren, Lauren J., Toni and Astrid. They win a book voucher. All entries will now be sent away to be included in the county prize draw.

Class 1, 1a and 2

These classes have been working on describing 2 and 3d shapes. They have identified differences in homes from different times and the reception children have designed their own toys.

Stars of the week; Eve F. for excellent work on homes from different times. Lewis L. for great behaviour. Seren for brilliant shape work Katelyn, Lennox and Harry C. for excellent writing

Class 3 and 4

Year 3 has been busy finding out about life in a Victorian school and the year 2 children have been investigating different parts of the UK.

Stars of the week; Michael for his focus and concentration and Lucas for excellent recall of the 2, 5 and 10 times tables. Amber for fabulous reading and Kobi for his enthusiasm and hard work

Class 5

Class 5 have begun to explore the life and work of L.S Lowry. They have also identified features of Victorian homes and used this in their art work.

Stars of the week; Ellie- Mae for superb behaviour and Finley M. for all round hard work.
