

Data for Governors report

For full Academic Year 2014-15

For English the overall results:-

72% of pupils made outstanding, better than expected progress

28% of pupils made good, expected levels of progress

0% of pupils made less than expected progress

For each section of English the results are as follows:-

Reading

60% of pupils made outstanding, better than expected progress

27% of pupils made good

13% of pupils made expected levels of progress

0% of pupils made less than expected levels of progress

Writing

60% of pupils made outstanding, better than expected progress

13% of pupils made good,

26% of pupils made expected levels of progress

0% of pupils made less than expected levels of progress

Speaking and Listening

73% of pupils made outstanding, better than expected progress

13% of pupils made good

7% of pupils made expected levels of progress

6% of pupils made less than expected progress

For Mathematics the overall result:-

76% of pupils made outstanding, better than expected progress

24% of pupils made good, expected levels of progress

0% of pupils made less than expected progress

For each section of mathematics the results are as follows:-

Number

81% of pupils made outstanding, better than expected progress

9% of pupils made good

9% of pupil made expected levels of progress

0% of pupils made less than expected progress

Shape, space and measure

61% of pupils made outstanding, better than expected progress

31% of pupils made good,

8% of pupils made expected levels of progress

0% of pupils made less than expected progress