

Making right angle testers!

What great fun we had in maths when we made right angle testers! We tested many objects in the classroom to see if we could find right angles.

