

Sarah Hayes

Headteacher

Sarah has worked in education for over 25 years, both in schools in North Tyneside and in Newcastle. In 1991 she took up a management post at Kingston Park Primary School and in 1993 she was appointed as Deputy Head within the school.

In 2001, after three periods of acting Headship (two at Kingston Park and one at Byker Primary School), she was appointed as the Headteacher of West Denton First School. Sarah led West Denton through re-organisation from a First into a Primary School and also through two major building projects, before being appointed as Headteacher of Stocksfield Avenue Primary School in September 2010

