Event Booking

Please note that to book onto any event you must have a registered account and be logged in. Please see previous steps to create an account.

You can access the event booking through the 'Online Booking' across the top of the website menu.
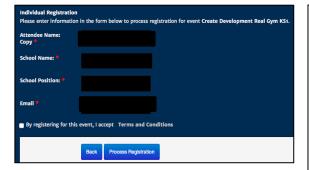

Select 'Events Calendar'.

Use the arrows at the top of the calendar to navigate between the months or the drop down menus.

Click onto the event that you would like to book onto.

Once you have clicked onto the event, you will be shown a screen similar to the one shown above right. This will give more information about the event.

There are two options of registration, either individual or group registrations.

Individual Registration:

As shown in the screen on the left you will need to fill in your details and agree the terms and conditions to complete the booking.

Clicking 'Process Registration' will register your booking. You shall receive a confirmation email to the one provided.

Group Registration:

You will be asked to provide the group size, before providing the information for each group member.

The first group member will be the lead booker and will receive all the information regarding the course.
