

Teaching, learning & assessment - Key Stage Two Curriculum Delivery

SUBJECT	CURRICULUM DELIVERY
Communication, language & literacy	Is embedded across the curriculum and will also be taught in 1:1, small group, class and 'structured teaching' sessions. SALT weekly sessions. Library sessions.
Maths	Is embedded across the curriculum and will also be taught in 1:1, small group, class and 'structured teaching' sessions. The School shop, reception etc. provide opportunities for 'making maths real.' Maths Week'.
Knowledge & understanding of the World
Science	Will be taught in discrete class sessions with reinforcement where appropriate in cross curricular activities and within class routines.
History	History will be taught using a subject specific/cross curricular approach, including the 'Daily Morning Class Sessions', the use of a symbol timetables.
Geography	Geography will be taught using a subject specific/cross curricular approach.
RE	RE will be taught through exploration of Festivals, Assemblies and events supported by the Brent RE Syllabus. Collective Worship/ reflection will take place daily.
Computing	Computing will be taught through discrete class lessons and through cross curricular activities.

PSED	PSED and Self help skills will be taught through the use of class routines, particularly focussing on arrival times, meal times, playtimes, home times, assemblies and choosing times, with some specific topic lessons R (Friends) Time.
Music, Art, PE, Swimming, Dance, Yoga, Drama	These subjects are primarily taught by subject teachers supported and developed by the class teacher.

The Village School DC 2018