

'Music on the Menu'

Hello schools, parents and carers,

We are delighted to bring you our eleventh edition of Music on the Menu. This week we have selected music activities that you might like to explore in the classroom, but that can also be shared with those who are learning at home.

Listening

Why not start the day by listening to beautiful music? Here is a performance by Helen Charlston and Trinity College Choir. This will most certainly help to calm and focus the mind.

How do you keep the music playing?

(Michael Legrand, arr. Alexander L'Estrange)

Key Stage 1

BBC Teach - Dance with the Elements

Dances for each of the four elements (air, earth, fire and water) have been choreographed to different pieces of classical music including JS Bach, Karl Jenkins, Aaron Copland, Johann Strauss, Claude Debussy and John Adams. Each dance comes with supporting teacher notes that explore different areas of the curriculum as well as movement and dance.

Key Stage 2

This week you will learn Cuban rhythms, create a kitchen percussion section and perform along to the lively 'Mambo' from 'West Side Story' with percussionist Stephen Whibley from the BBC Concert Orchestra.

To get involved and find out about how you can feature in the Ten Pieces at Home online showcase, please visit <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/ten-pieces/ten-pieces-at-home/zjy3382>.

SEND

Each Sunday Pro Corda will announce which show they are going to focus on for the following week. This week's show will be Peter Pan.

During the week videos the songs will be uploaded so that young people can practise singing and signing at home. There will be yoga warm ups and instruction videos to teach some dance moves. As well as the current show, you can also find resources for previous shows such as The Greatest Showman, The Wizard of Oz, Lion King and Les Miserables.
