

Nature Art

William Morris and Giuseppe Arcimboldo were artists who were inspired by nature and the environment around them.

Can you be an inspiring artist and find or draw everyday nature objects to create a picture.

Can you name these objects?

Below are some examples of pictures made with things you will find in your local environment.

What is the picture?

What objects were used to make it?

Your task is to collect or draw natural objects.

Picture created