At last Friday's 'Stay and Play' in Reception, the focus was on Christmas art and creativity. At the end of the day, everyone took home a delightful Christmas trinket.

Last Friday the following children were awarded certificates at our Celebration Assembly:

Book of the Week: Alex Skorko, Indie-Zac Wilson, Beverley Oppong, Mason Thompson, Zoe Vasquez and Alarnie Ankers.

Good Manners: Amelia Glendenning, Mya Matthews, Jazmin Johnson, Kati-Jean Moor, Kian Armstrong and Luciara Baptista.

Journey with Mary: Neivie Crate, Cielo Cruz, Sophie Kerr, Joshua Yeaman, Destiny Omojor and Corey Low.

Well done to you all!

On Tuesday, Y1 and their parents and carers were elbow deep in glitter and glue! The class and their VIP guests had an exciting afternoon of festive fun as they created an array of beautiful Christmas tree decorations.

ATTENDANCE

“Central to raising standards in education and ensuring all pupils can fulfil their potential is an assumption so widely understood that it is insufficiently stated – pupils need to attend school regularly to benefit from their education. DfE 2013

Attend today, achieve tomorrow

| Total | 97.0% |

Bravo Year 6 for another week at the top of the attendance table! It is very reassuring to see our eldest pupils demonstrate such a diligent approach to their education and schooling. Indeed, whilst every day counts for every pupil at St. Vincent's, our Y6 pupils are preparing for their transition to High School and this academic year is essential for ensuring every Y6 child is 'secondary ready' by July.

Oh how we love a good Christmas cracker joke:

Q. What goes 'oh, oh, oh'?
A. Santa walking backwards!

Q. Why did the Christmas tree go to the doctors?
A. Because it had tinselitis!

Next week's statement to live by is

I try to follow our school and classroom rules
