Our Year 5 Mini Vinnies raised £270 through their cake and juice sale at Friday's 'Children in Need Pyjama Day'. Great work for a good cause. Well done.

Teachers at St. Vincent's often remind themselves that they are teaching the doctors, vets, lawyers and architects of the future. Indeed, our talented, hard-working pupils have both the ability and attitude to be whatever they want to be. For many this will involve studying at University so, to give them a taste of what awaits them, Y6 spent the day at Newcastle University on Thursday.

The children had a marvellous time exploring the campus and learning about student life.

Last Friday the following children were awarded certificates at our Celebration Assembly:

Book of the Week: Sienna Garner, Hayley Walmsley, Ava Dixon, Olive Ellitson, Millie Hudson and Zharlyne Garces.

Good Manners: Layla-Rose Curry, Ruby Watson, Anya Bailes, Alfie Kerr, Tom Britton and Aimee Phillips.

Journey with Mary: Selene Bernasol, Dylan Desbrough, Scarlet Edwards, Imogen Burnham, Johnny Robson and Italy Low.

Well done to you all!

Mr Collister and Mr Cox were very impressed by the Y6/Y5 Boys Football team's energy and effort on Monday when they played 2 matches for the local league.

Due to our Christmas Nativity rehearsal schedule, this week saw the last Tea@3 with Reception and Y1 until the New Year. Mrs Wood will be back-on-the-case (and back in the kitchen with the children) in January.

Muftah, Y5, knows that a worry shared is a worry halved. Here's his worrisome joke:

Q. What do you call a worried dinosaur?

A. A Not-so-sure-us

ATTENDANCE

"Central to raising standards in education and ensuring all pupils can fulfil their potential is an assumption so widely understood that it is insufficiently stated – pupils need to attend school regularly to benefit from their education. DfE 2013

A 100% hat-trick! 'Hoorah' for super attendance last week, well done Rec, Y2 and Y3! Bravo to Y4, Y5 and Y6 too – what a fantastic team effort.

Our savvy winits savers splashed-out on a super-sized reward this week. Eight children (from Y5 and Y6) went to the cinema to see 'The Grinch' on Tuesday, whilst 6 pupils tucked-in to a tasty take-away lunch. Bon appetite!
