Every year, St. Mary's High School invites all the Y5 children from its feeder-schools to a joyous celebration of creative arts, games and sport: Just.Is

On Thursday, our Y5 pupils had a wonderful day of prayer, fun and laughter with the children from St. Mary's and from our fellow Catholic schools, many of whom will be their future Year 7 friends and classmates.

Y4 are studying The Romans in History, so our young archaeologists spent Thursday at the ancient Roman fort and museum, Arbeia.

Please help keep our school safe for everyone.

Thank you!

Well done to you all!

In Reception, the topic this term is Mini-Beasts and on Wednesday parents/carers were invited to explore the story of 'The Hungry Caterpillar' with the children. After creating their own Hungry Caterpillars, everyone got to eat the Hungry Caterpillar's juicy fruit. Scrumptious!

Beanbag-Bazaar has generously donated a selection of colourful and comfy bean-bags to our school library.

Not only do the bean-bags add a new level of enjoyment to the children's reading pleasure, but their vibrant colours and fun designs make the school library a more inviting space: they are a particularly big hit with our Monday Book Club. 'Thank you Beanbag-Bazaar!'

Hoorah for Reception: a great result, well done! There was great excitement at the Winits Emporium this week as the children chose from the marvellous array of toys and games. Of course, some children chose to save their winits because they have their hearts set on a different treat: a take-away lunch, a trip to the cinema or a visit to the aquarium.

Zoe C (Y4) is a diligent student who always does her homework and hands it in on-time.

Q. Why did the girl eat her homework? 🍷

A. Because the teacher said it was, 'a piece of cake!'

Next week's Statement to Live By
