Well done Year 6, you survived SATs! Top marks for tenacity, commitment and focus: they certainly know their fronted adverbials from their subordinating conjunctions! We are very proud of you all.

Each day started with a delicious brain-fuel breakfast, lovingly prepared by staff, at The SATs Café.

Well done also to our talented and dedicated teachers who have guided, motivated and inspired these young learners through their primary years. Indeed, whilst our Y6 class is always split into 2 sub-groups to give an enviable ratio of 1 experienced teacher to 15 Y6 pupils, teaching is a team activity. Mrs Hall (Rec), Mrs Adcock (Y1), Miss Bamber (Y2), Mr Turner (Y3), Mrs McConnell (Y4), Miss Willis (Y5), Miss Johnston (Y6) and Mrs Burdon (Y6) have all played critical roles in helping the children meet their full primary-school-potential. Thank you!

There's nothing nicer than a refreshing fruit kebab with friends in the sunshine. Indeed, yesterday Y2 prepared their own snacks from a wide selection of juicy, nutritious fruits. Scrumptious!

Last Friday the following children were awarded certificates at our Celebration Assembly:

Book of the Week: Lena Perkowska, Ryan Biggins, Indie-Zac Wilson, Alex Nowak, Christopher Anderson, Scott Thompson and Joe Tweddle.

Good Manners: Louie Francis, Zayn Vasquez, Callum Sinclair, Lacey Kelly, Bobbi Dack, Lilly-Mae Snowdon and Ella-Mai Watson.

Journey with Mary: Alan Bacmaga, Amelia Hartley, Charlie McClennan, Karie-Anne Barnes, Cerys Davies, Prince Fernandes and Corey-Lee Mehan.

Well done everyone!

Some of our winits super-savers splashed out on a trip to Seven Stories on Thursday. The girls had a marvellous time exploring this local treasure chest of literary marvels.

Seven Stories is 4 minutes away by car (we timed it) and offers an array of exciting and engaging activities. Have a look on their website for fun holiday and week-end events.

You've got to be In It 2 Win It

Knock knock. Who's there? Gladys. Gladys who?
Gladys the week-end!

Knock knock. Who's there? A broken pencil.
A broken pencil who?

Never mind, it's pointless!
