

Thank you to everyone for supporting the Summer Fair (through donations and purchases) and for making it such a huge success. A particularly BIG 'thank you' goes to Mrs Lockhart for organising the event and to all her helpers for manning the stalls.

This week we say 'Goodbye, good luck and God bless' not only to our clever class of Y6 pupils, but also to 2 valued members of staff.

Mr Cox joined St. Vincent's in 2013 as the school's Sports Coach and TA. Now, after 6 years of PE and classroom support at St. Vincent's, he is taking the natural next step for a talented, motivated and inspirational professional: he's going to train to be a Primary School teacher. Good luck, Mr Cox!

Mrs Bruce joined the school in September to cover Mrs McConnell's maternity leave. She quickly became one of the team and guided the class of Y4 pupils through a successful and productive year. Thank you!

We all wish Mr Cox and Mrs Bruce great happiness and fulfilment in the future.

Y5 appear to have started a 'Why do...' trend. Here is Efe's contribution:

Q. Why do Peter Pan and Tinker Bell fly everywhere?

A. Because they never land!

ATTENDANCE

"Central to raising standards in education and ensuring all pupils can fulfil their potential is an assumption so widely understood that it is insufficiently stated – pupils need to attend school regularly to benefit from their education. DfE 2013

Attend today, achieve tomorrow

Bravo Year 1, what a magnificent end to your time with Miss Womphrey in Y1. Y2 have ended with a super score too. Well done.

Today, pupils with fantastic school attendance for the 2018-19 academic year were congratulated and rewarded.

33 pupils with 100% and 40 pupils with 99% attendance spent the morning on the Fun Bus parked on the school driveway: fortunately an ice-cream van was ready and waiting in the play-ground to help them cool down with a deliciously refreshing ice-cream cone.

Year 3 received the attendance trophy for having the best attendance in summer2, 99.4%. Superb! Three cheers also went to Y3 for having the best attendance, 98.1%, for the full year, hip-hip-hooray!

'Thank you' children for your tenacity and resilience. 'Thank you' parents for your continued support. 'Thank you' staff for your hard-work and unwavering commitment to your pupils. We wish you all a sunny and safe six weeks holiday: rest, relax and, children, READ! See you in September. Best wishes from Governors and Ms. Ness.
