Accessing remote learning via Teams

In the event of school closures / pupils having to self-isolate due to Covid 19, teachers will deliver lessons online. These may be classroom-based (in the event of pupils self-isolating) or, in the event of school closure, hosted by the teacher in a safe, secure and controlled online environment using the video conferencing facility in Microsoft Teams.

Guidelines for online learning: Pupils

If you are self-isolating then you will access the classroom based lessons using Teams. If a teacher enables video then their head and shoulders are visible, as are your head and shoulders. You should behave online as you would behave in class.

What does this mean when you are taking part in a Teams lesson when NOT in school?

- You should stay focused and quiet when involved in a Teams lesson.
- You should turn up for a Teams lesson on time and with the appropriate equipment for that subject.
- You should end the Teams lesson when the teacher tells you it has finished.
- You should not have a mobile phone with you when the lesson is taking place.
- You should not take part in the Teams lesson in your bedroom: use another room/area in the house.
- You must not take photos or screen shots at any point in the lesson.
- All work uploaded to Teams should be your own.
- You should dress as you would for a non-uniform day at St. Joseph's.
- The teacher will explain at the beginning of the lesson how you ask questions during the Teams lesson.
- You should ask permission to leave your Teams lesson (for example, to go to the toilet); this should be done using the 'raise your hand' function.
- You should not have drinks (other than water) or eat any food during the lesson.

Guidelines for online learning: Parents

Parents can play a vital role in supporting their children.

Our advice would be:

- Keep in regular contact with your child's school by ensuring you access updates on the website, or via Class Dojo or direct emails.
- Get to know your child's timetable and check which lessons they are going to be having online.
- Be strict about where these lessons are happening: ideally they should be done in a quiet place where interruption and distraction is kept to a minimum. A bedroom is not appropriate.
- Double check that nothing personal (such as images or messages) are visible, either on desktops or in the background.
- Check that work being set by teachers is being submitted and that deadlines are being met.
- Make sure that your child dresses appropriately for any online lessons.
- If you feel uncomfortable or feel that anything inappropriate has happened during the lesson you should contact Miss E. Mathews, Headteacher.
