

Drawing activities

Take a line for a walk around your page. Now fill in each section with a pattern in either pen or pencil.	Divide your page into 9 sections and fill each section with a different tone.	Draw your favourite cartoon character.	Draw your hand holding something.	Divide your page into 9 sections and fill each section with a different texture.	Use a magnifying glass and draw a close up of a zip.	Make a drawing of one of the pieces of art on your classroom wall.	Draw an outline of an object by drawing what is in the space around it.
Draw something from your imagination.	Draw your favourite book/ game/ character.	Doodle	Shade in the whole page – now draw using a rubber.	Draw the person sitting next to or opposite you.	Draw your school bag as a line drawing, adding all the details.	Look in a mirror and draw your won eye. Can you shade it?	Draw a copy of a work by a famous artist.
Draw your house.	Draw what you think a house will look like in 200 years.	Draw your pet/favourite toy or gadget.	Draw a member if your family.	Take your tie off and draw it using tone.	Draw someone running.	Draw the room in 3d if you can.	Draw a pair of scissors and show the different textures.
Make a collection of different types of lines by using different things to draw with. Fill the page.	Make a drawing using the hand you don't normally draw with.	Make a drawing where you overlap at least 3 images.	Draw an imaginary place.	Draw a mythical beast.	Draw a self portrait.	Make a series of overlapping shapes and colour them in no more than 3 colours.	Draw your hobbies.
Make a drawing that reflects your mood today.	Draw yourself screaming because you are scared.	The famous pop artist Andy Warhol said 'Everyone will have fifteen minutes of fame in a lifetime.' Illustrate your 15 minutes of fame.	A new musical group have asked you to design an album cover. Be sure your design is original.	Invent a new kind of car that you might drive when you grow up. Draw the car.	Draw what you would most love to eat for breakfast.	Draw a picture of yourself if you grew plants or flowers instead of hair.	Design a new book cover for your favourite book.