

Monday 21st September

WALT: Use a variety of accurately punctuated dialogue

Your task:

Read the first two pages of Chapter 2. The next slide sets the scene ready for you to write your idea of the conversation between Mrs McCormick and Greg.

You MUST remember all punctuation linked to speech!

Greg had walked to the front of the classroom, waited until his teacher looked up from her book, and then said, "Mrs McCormick, I left my lunch at home. May I borrow fifty cents?"

What do you think will happen next between Greg and Mrs McCormick?

WAGOLL	ACHIEVED?
Inverted commas for speech
Synonyms for said
NSNL
End of sentence punctuation
Use narrative to add more detail for the reader
Use different sentence types (simple, compound, complex)

☺ I have achieved...

┌ Next time, I will ...

Tuesday 22nd September

WALT: Use a variety of punctuation accurately.

What ideas do you have that could make you quick money in school?

On paper, discuss in your table line, ideas that you could carry out in school to make money.

Wednesday 12th September

WALT: Use a variety of punctuation accurately.

School had suddenly become the most interesting place on the planet; young Greg Kenton had decided that school would be an excellent place to make his fortune.

How could you make money in school?

Dear Diary,

Today, I had some phenomenal ideas to make money in school, quickly. My first idea to become rich will be to :

Thursday 24th September

WALT: edit and redraft writing to show improvements

- Complete your diary entry
- Edit and improve any word choices
- Look out for any accurate punctuation
- Are your paragraph openers different?

Edit and use a redraft flap to improve your work.
EVERYONE will need to do this.

☺ Punctuation I have included: