Why vote Faith? Well... Do you want Chaytor to win every competition we can? Or maybe you want a house captain who is caring, friendly and listens to all your suggestions. That's your answer.

Good afternoon boys, girls, teachers and teaching assistants. Firstly, I would like to welcome all pupils who have been here previously and give a special welcome to all year ones and new students. My name is Faith Watts and I am here because I want to bring back Chaytor's WINNING!

I see a house captain as ^{being} ~~being~~ a leader. Now what is a leader? Someone who tells people what to do? No, NO and definitely NO! A leader is someone who listens to all of their teammates and friends and make makes the environment they are in better, and more fun. If that's a leader I think I can be one.

If you elect me I will bring back house captain competitions, lead our house to victory, and the best, make our school more eco friendly. I will make our school more eco-friendly by having a little day. This will consist of caring in animal orie's
