

Behaviour Policy Addendum

Children should be mindful of the adjustments made for dealing with Covid 19 and following the given rules: social distancing, handwashing when required, one-way systems. They will be reminded of these regularly and if they are not following them.

Any deliberate disregard of the rules will result in parents being informed, and their place at school may be withdrawn.

Some children with specific needs might need more reminders and support than others to adhere to these rules.