

How can I let the school know I am concerned about my child's progress in school?

If you have concerns about your child's progress, you should speak to your child's class teacher initially.

If you are not happy that the concerns are being managed and that your child is still not making progress, you should speak to the SENCo or Head Teacher.

If you are still not happy, you can speak to the school SEND Governor. Details may be gained from the school office.

If you are still unhappy, you may contact Birmingham City Council Assessment and Review Team for Special Educational Needs:
