Thursday 7th March

Hi Everyone,

Happy World Book Day!

Everyone looked amazing this morning dressed in their pyjamas – the rain didn't dampen our spirits (or our slippers!) as we celebrated our favourite bedtime stories. The children have been busy in activities all day, listening and reading and sharing our books. Check our Twitter feed to see the fun we have been having and catch up on the latest Crossflatts World Book Day news.

Our next PTA meeting will be at 8:50am on Friday 8th March in school. Please do come along and meet our new co-chairs Mrs Brewis and Mrs Wilkinson. They have many great ideas and events planned in for the next term and would greatly appreciate your help and support. If you can lend an hour or two, please do come along or see details on the attached welcome letter on how to get involved.

Can we please remind parents, for the safety of our children, not to park or wait on the yellow zig zag lines at the front of school. Police are currently patrolling the area as vehicles have been causing an obstruction.

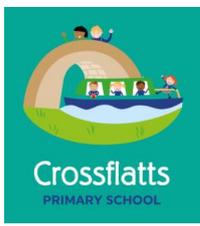

Next Friday is Comic Relief day. Children may come to school in non-uniform and make a donation of your choosing on the day. Again, look out for news and updates on the day on our Twitter feed as no doubt the teachers will have a few surprises up their sleeves!

Safeguarding

Screen time is an issue that is always in the news. Here are some interesting statistics to think about:

Further details from the RCPCH survey can be found on the following website – https://www.rcpch.ac.uk/screen_time

Attendance:

Here are last week's figures:

Our Aspirational Target	The national target	Reception	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
98%	96.1%	84.9%	96.4%	96.5%	96.56%	98.1%	97.5%	98.1%

There were 7 children late for school last week. (Before registration closed at 9am) and 4 children later than 9am

Mrs Bennett will be back with us next week and is looking forward to seeing everyone.

Kind regards
