Thursday 14th February 2019

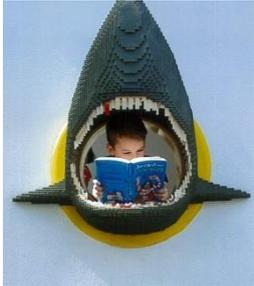

Hi Everyone,

Happy Valentine's Day everyone!

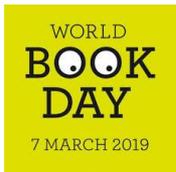

We held our Spring term parents evenings this week, these were very well attended and it was a pleasure to see so many of our children proudly showing their families their progress this academic year, many thanks for your support in attending these sessions.

We have opened up an Extreme Reading competition to our children this week, where we are challenging our children to take a photograph of themselves reading in interesting or exciting places whilst out and about on their February half term. Please send any photographs by Monday 25th of February to office@crossflatts.bradford.sch.uk and the winners will be announced at the end of the first week back! Let's get reading!

Continuing with a reading theme, on Thursday 7th March, we will be celebrating World Book Day.

This year we are celebrating the importance of a bed time read so we are inviting our children and staff to come to school wearing their favourite pyjamas and bring their favourite bed time story, which they will be encouraged to share with other children. They can also bring their bed time bear to school for the day too!

Safeguarding

As I wrote last week, it is imperative for the safety of all our children that there is no parking on demarcated no parking zones around Morton Lane or the drive on the way into the staff car park. Council Parking Wardens have been issuing fines this week. Please ensure you park within the designated areas to ensure the safety of all of our children and avoid receiving a fine as the Council are being very stringent with this.

Attendance:

Here are last week's figures:

Our Aspirational Target	The national target	Reception	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
98%	96.1%	98.9%	94.1%	97.8%	91.7%	94.9%	95.1%	96.8%

There were 9 children late for school last week. (Before registration closed at 9am) and 3 children later than 9am

I hope everyone has a lovely half term with some sunshine!

Kind regards

Mrs Bennett
