What do you feel are the strengths of our school?

- Good Curriculum
- Friendly staff
- High expectations
- I enjoy the parent partnership with the school.
- Brilliant breakfast club plus it's not expensive for the parents.
- The way the school communicates with parents is fantastic along with the way the parents are invited into school to be involved in things
- Excellent results for the school
- Good teaching and reception staff
- Excellent SATs results well done!
- Curriculum day was fantastic!
- Fantastic support with my child and his dyslexia
- Fab breakfast club
- Great communication between teachers and parents.
- Breakfast club is the best

Is there any area in which you feel the school could improve?

- More homework
- Chloe's garden needs cutting more.
- Prompt children to go to the toilet more (accidents).
- More afterschool places.
- Bit more notice for own clothes day.
- To have more parent partnership sessions throughout the year.

- More fun activities e.g. Christmas Parties, Halloween Disco
- Great school but maybe better if parents morning times were changed for nursery as my son found it hard when we had to leave.
- After school club for working parents to pay.
- I think that the safety in the playground could be better for safety of children when another parent is targeting another child.
